

Senior Partner Edmund Leow SC appointed as co-chair of Tax and Trust Committee

February 14, 2020

Senior Partner Edmund Leow, SC, who heads the firm's Tax and Trusts practice, has been appointed as co-chair of The Law Society of Singapore's Tax and Trust Committee 2020.

The Tax and Trust Committee aims to:

- Provide a forum for dialogue between legal practitioners and relevant government agencies on tax law developments in Singapore, including but not limited to the development of Singapore as an international and cross-border tax dispute resolution hub
- Provide a forum to gather inputs from legal practitioners on tax and trust law developments
- Develop more interest and specialisation in tax and trust law in the Singapore legal profession
- Collaborate with other Law Society committees to ensure that Singapore lawyers have the right skill sets and expertise to support the private wealth industry
