

Dentons Rodyk highly ranked in Chambers FinTech 2020

January 30, 2020

Dentons Rodyk is proud to announce that Senior Partner Kenneth Oh has been recognized as a Band 1 lawyer in the Chambers FinTech 2020 guide, for the second year in a row. Kenneth is recognised for his expertise on the cryptocurrency and blockchain side of the market, with one source commenting that he has achieved “tremendous traction, and tremendous success” within that space. Kenneth was also praised by clients for his “very business-oriented” style of working.

The firm’s FinTech practice was also ranked Band 2 in the guide. Clients praise the team for “having a great ability to think about getting things done”, with one source commenting that the team was “consultative and practical, with advice tailored to my goals”.

This year, Chambers FinTech 2020 expanded its coverage from 22 to 37 jurisdictions. Chambers recommendations are based on several months of research by a dedicated, independent team conducting hundreds of in-depth interviews with leading innovators and experts worldwide.
