

Dentons Rodyk ranked in Chambers and Partners High Net Worth Guide 2021

July 28, 2021

Dentons Rodyk has been ranked in the High Net Worth Guide 2021 by Chambers and Partners, in the area of Private Wealth Law in Singapore.

An industry commentator highlights the resources available to Dentons Rodyk, stating that "they are solid and dependable for private wealth law services in Singapore, and it is also helpful that they have access to network firms globally." Sources find its connection "to other countries and regions, in particular China and ASEAN," to be a key strength of the practice. Another interviewee says: "They are very upfront and very thorough with their advice."

Individually, Senior Partners Edmund Leow, SC and Kia Meng Loh were ranked in the guide.

Edmund was described by interviewees as "very established and knowledgeable on tax and trust issues", and "his experience as a former High Court judge is very useful for clients when structuring tax matters, because he is the authority when deciding what works and what does not work."

Kia Meng, who was ranked for the first time in the guide, was praised by sources for his "strong business acumen, proficiency in the Chinese language and wide network of partners in the industry", and that "he is keenly aware of the needs of ultra high net worth individuals, enabling him to communicate with clients with ease and also attend to their requirements attentively."
