

Audrey Sim

Senior Associate

Senior Associate

Singapore

D +65 6885 2760

audrey.sim@dentons.com

Overview

Audrey is a Senior Associate in Dentons Rodyk & Davidson LLP's Litigation & Arbitration Practice Group.

Audrey graduated from the National University of Singapore in 2013 with 2nd Class Honours (Upper Division). She was admitted to the Singapore Bar as an Advocate and Solicitor in 2014.

Audrey has advised and represented medical and dental practitioners, hospitals, medical defence organisations and insurance companies. She has acted for hospitals and doctors in medical negligence suits in the Court of Appeal, High Court and State Courts, and assisted hospitals and medical practitioners at coronial inquiries. She has also assisted and represented medical and dental practitioners in professional disciplinary proceedings commenced by the Singapore Medical Council.

Apart from contentious medical malpractice work, Audrey has also advised healthcare institutions on matters involving procedural and regulatory aspects.

As part of her pro bono work, Audrey volunteers at Community Legal Clinics.

Experience

- A Cardiologist based in Singapore: Successfully defended a Cardiologist in the Singapore Medical Council disciplinary inquiry case on appeal to the Court of Three Judges. Reported in Lam Kwok Tai Leslie v Singapore Medical Council [2017] SGHC 260.
- A Singapore Hospital and three doctors: Successfully defended three doctors in a medical malpractice civil suit where the plaintiff was seeking damages in excess of S$6 million. Reported in Noor Azlin Bte Abdul Rahman v Changi General Hospital & Others [2018] SGHC 35.
- Confidential client: Appearing before the Court of Appeal on a novel point of law in relation to the limitation period applicable to dependency claims.
- Various clients: Acting for and advising various medical practitioners and hospitals (both private and restructured) on litigation in the High Court and State Courts of Singapore.

- Various clients: Advising and representing medical practitioners in professional disciplinary proceedings before the Singapore Medical Council.

Insights

- Co-author, "Taking and documenting informed consent: When is it not enough?", Litigation Brief, January 2018

Activities and Affiliations

Presentations

- Assisted with the presentation at the Parkway Pantai Medicolegal Seminar, Duty to Attend, 26 May 2018

Memberships

- Member, Singapore Academy of Law
- Member, Law Society of Singapore

Prior and Present Employment

- Dentons Rodyk (formerly Rodyk & Davidson LLP), 2013 to present

Areas of focus

Practices

- Litigation and Dispute Resolution

Education

- National University of Singapore, 2013, LLB (Hons)

Admissions and qualifications

- Advocate & Solicitor, Singapore, 2014