

Overview

Benefit from an experienced Banking team that regularly advises on the full scope of legal issues. From corporate representation of banks big and small to private banking—including representing private banks, high net worth individuals and corporations, lending financial institutions and both onshore and offshore trusts in a wide spectrum of transactions and issues—trust us to help you navigate any legal matter that may arise.

We offer capabilities in three major categories:

Corporate banking

Whether you are a large bank, financial institution or corporate borrower, we can assist you in a wide range of local and international debt related transactions and guide you through any regulatory and compliance issue you may face in relation to the structuring, negotiation and drafting of documentation.

Our experience extends to bilateral, club and syndicated loans (encompassing cross border and multi-currency transactions), acquisition and asset financing, as well as risk and funded sub-participation, transferable loans, securitizations and loans with embedded debt-instruments, and share conversion options. We assist banks and financial institutions in the area of product development, including the drafting and preparation of template documents and standard terms and conditions.

- Bank products
- Compliance and regulatory advice
- Credit facilities, including short, medium and long term
