

Overview

Comprised of a team of lawyers with extensive experience and a deep understanding of the shipping industry, our Ship and Marine Finance services span the whole value chain from the inception of a project and its risk management to enforcement and dispute resolution.

We provide comprehensive advisory and documentation services in relation to ship sales and purchases, leasing, financing and registration, as well as the drafting and negotiation of shipping related contracts. We regularly represent vessel owners on attaining Approved International Shipping (AIS) Scheme and tax-exempt status in Singapore. We represent major shipyards in offshore construction projects, including projects involving the oil and gas industries, in addition to cross-border projects, particularly in India, Indonesia and China.

Our full suite of services includes the structuring, negotiation and drafting of all documentation in relation to ship construction, financing, sale and purchase, and registration, as well as marine insurance and charter contracts. With deep experience dealing with commercial, regulatory and tax issues concerning ship finance, trust us to assist you in the structuring of a broad range of ship financing methods.

Our expertise includes:

- Ship leasing and financing
- Carriage of goods and passengers
- Charter arrangements, conversion and repair
- Marine insurance
- Ship sale and purchase
- Ship construction
- Ship finance related commercial, regulatory and tax issues
- Ship finance and ship registration
