Trusts, Estates and Wealth Preservation in Singapore

Overview

Families passing significant assets to the next generation want expert advice so they can feel confident about the security and ultimate disposition of their assets. Financial institutions handling estates of clients need expert, confidential legal advice as to avoiding, or handling, disputes.

Benefit from a full range of sophisticated legal, tax and financial planning advice to meet your personal goals. Focusing on our clients' and their intended beneficiaries' long-term financial and estate planning requirements, as well as addressing more immediate personal, financial, or estate or trust-related matters, our team assists executors and trustees in the administration of complex estates and trusts. Dentons Rodyk is also prepared to handle estate and trust-related litigation, working with our host of experienced litigators when appropriate.
