

July 12, 2019

Welcome to the 3rd issue of the Dentons Rodyk Reporter in 2019.

The Dentons Rodyk Reporter is a compendium of commentaries produced and published by Dentons Rodyk Academy on a weekly basis. You may download the PDF report to read the complete issue, or read the articles using the links below. The updates and articles on the latest developments in the law and industry practices are conveniently categorised in these specialist bulletins:

- Thailand Seminar

Business Bulletin

- The Payment Services Act and how it affects FinTech in Singapore
- Variable Capital Company – Review of new corporate entity from an administration viewpoint
- Gaining popularity of green loans in Singapore
- Shifting sands, Changing tides – Anchoring your business and investments in Singapore

Insolvency Insights

- Coming to terms with COMI

Coming to terms with COMI

June 18, 2019

The Model Law on Cross-Border Insolvency was issued by the UNCITRAL Secretariat in 1997. The purpose of this Model Law was to provide effective mechanisms for dealing with cases of cross-border insolvency so as to promote various objectives, and as part of this process, the Model Law focuses on identifying the main insolvency proceeding. The way to do this? By identifying the "COMI".

Gaining popularity of green loans in Singapore

July 4, 2019

Green loans are increasingly gaining prominence in the corporate lending market in Singapore. We observed that the changing corporate social responsibility (CSR) direction of both banks and borrowers have contributed significantly to such growth.

Shifting sands, Changing tides – Anchoring your business and investments in

Singapore

July 10, 2019

The trend towards economic nationalism, along with heightened global political instability, has given rise to increased risks and uncertainties for individuals and businesses worldwide, in respect of their assets and investments whether held onshore or offshore.

Thailand Seminar

June 27, 2019

In Dentons' recent foray into the Land of Smiles, our partners co-hosted, at the invitation of the Stock Exchange of Thailand (SET), a successful seminar which drew positive responses from over 230 Thai legal luminaries who attended the event in Bangkok at the SET.

The Payment Services Act and how it affects FinTech in Singapore

May 27, 2019

Recognising the new risks arising from technology, which is transforming payments, as well as from the merging of services that were previously regulated separately, the Payment Services Act (PSA) was passed into law on 14 January 2019.

Variable Capital Company – Review of new corporate entity from an administration viewpoint

June 18, 2019

Singapore intends to launch a new corporate structure in 2019 in a bid to attract more investment funds and foreign private capital to Singapore and encourage more fund managers to domicile their funds in Singapore. This new structure would add to Singapore's full service offerings for any type of fund to be based in this jurisdiction.

Your Key Contacts

Philip Jeyaretnam, SC

Global Vice-Chair and ASEAN CEO, Singapore

D +65 6885 3605

philip.jeyaretnam@dentons.com